CLUB HISTORY

The Club was incorporated in the spring of 1912 "to improve conditions, civic and general, by working in philanthropic, educational and cultural directions." At that time, it was known as the Park Ridge Improvement Association. More than one hundred years later, the Twentieth Century Club espouses the same goals. Management is vested in the Board of Directors, comprised of officers, directors, department and committee chairs.

The Twentieth Century Club Foundation awards scholarships to local high school graduates and raises money for donations to not-for-profit organizations through the annual Benefit and similar activities. The Social Service Department of the Club provides help to needy adults and children through food drives, holiday baskets and similar donations. Monthly programs at the general meetings are presented by the various departments and reflect the cultural and social interests of the membership, now numbering over 200 women.

A detailed history of the Club has been archived for each club year and is available online.

PRESIDENTS' REPORTS 2014-2019

2018-2019 Susan James, President

It was a very busy Club year thanks to our hardworking Board and fantastic membership. At our first meeting the past presidents were honored, and Gayle Trier from Sheridan Estate Sales presented ways to prepare for a house sale. A wonderful Fall bus trip to two Synagogues was very inspirational. November's meeting featured Kiko's Flowers & Gifts "Holidays in Bloom." Thanksgiving Goodies Baskets were delivered to the Center of Concern, and members attended "Beauty and the Beast" at Drury Lane. December's highlight was the annual Christmas Luncheon with entertainment provided by the Maine South Jazz Chorus. January's meeting featured Natasha Ritsma presenting "Women Artists." At the February meeting Jan Starzec presented "Mothers Demand Action," and we celebrated Reciprocity Day. At March's meeting Betsy Means presented "An Intimate Evening with Emily Dickinson." We also had the food collection for Maine Township and Needlework & Stitchery display. The month ended with the delicious Gourmet Luncheon. April showcased Martina Mathisen presenting "The Six Wives of Henry VIII," the annual book sale, and our outstanding Benefit "Circle of Friends" chaired by Pat Long. The Benefit netted over $12,000. The recipients were Park Ridge Fine Arts Society, Park Ridge History Center, and Scholarships. We ended the year with the New Members' Tea and the Memorial Day Parade. Book discussion groups, Rovers, Stitchery and Bridge groups continue to flourish. Thanks to all for a wonderful year.

It was a very fulfilling year!

2016-2017 Helen Ideno, President

Our club started the year with a bus tour to St. John's Church & Shrine in Indiana which featured beautiful art and sculptures. In October Emily Wilderman of Winestyles explained the subtlety of various wines and ten bottles were raffled off. In November Christine Benoodt taught us about the history of dining, eating habits and etiquette. We had a lovely lunch and saw the humorous play, "Crazy for You," at Drury Lane Theater. Thanksgiving baskets were distributed through Center of Concern. The annual Christmas luncheon at PRCC included the NaKapuna musicians and singers. In January Terry Lynch presented a different historical view of "Night of Dance, Day of Infamy." In February we learned about the various organizations in "What's New." March had us singing along with "Musical Theater in America" presented by Fox Valley Festival Church. In April the Tupperware lady, Brownie Wise (Leslie Goddard) came by. The Gourmet Luncheon was held at Café Touche. Thanks to our members' generosity, our Foundation gave six scholarships, 4 to Maine South HS students, 1 to Maine East and 1 to St. Viator. "Diamonds & Denim" Benefit Co-chairs, Carolynn Monroe and Barbara Ingolia, raised over $12,000 for Center of Concern, FISH and scholarships. It was a very exciting year!

2015-2016 Sandy Dumalski, President

This was a very good year. The bus trip took us to a Buddhist temple and the Dreihaus Museum. Our 2016 Benefit was "Our Kentucky Derby." At this event our club was entertained by the Fine Arts Department students from Maine South High School. The Benefit recipients were Rainbow Hospice and the Scholarship Fund. Seven scholarships were given to seven graduating seniors. We enjoyed some interesting programs this year: Leslie Goddard portrayed Amelia Earhart; Betsy Means spoke as Agatha Christie; Christine Benoodt gave a talk on art in Chicago; and Andy Zimmerman, of Kiko's Florist, demonstrated how to arrange flowers. Many of our members continue to belong to one of our four Book Discussion Groups, Antique Rovers, Stitchery, and all the various Bridge groups. We remain a very active, philanthropic Club and Foundation. "How far yon tiny candle throws its beam."

2014-2015 Sandy Dumalski, President

We had an interesting year. We discussed changing the name of the club, but in the end did not. Our programs were interesting, as usual, and at least 95 members attended every general meeting. Eleanor Roosevelt visited (as portrayed by Leslie Goddard). Charles Troy spoke about Cole Porter (very delightful). And Cynthia Boudreau showed us her beautiful, handmade scarves and jackets. (She is very talented.) Our Benefit was unique because our own wedding dresses were the fashions at "The Way We Were: Our Lives in Fashion." Our Foundation, due to the generosity of our members, gave 6 scholarships to Maine South H.S. students. We also donated proceeds from the Benefit to Wings and Avenues to Independence. We had a very busy and sociable year!
